Step inside the 3,176-square-foot home to find a designer's dream by midcentury modern architecture.

streamlined white cabinets, and a skylight.

with the dining room just a single step up—and bay windows looking out to the front yard that admit ample natural light. The glass railing leading upstairs is another way to signal that little is concealed on the main floor. The kitchen is a few more steps up and has a stainless steel backsplash, butcher block countertops,

The den has a huge vaulted ceiling with wood beams spanning its length. The space is wide open—

The master suite comes with a wood accented wall, big walk-in closet, and a sleek master bath with a soaking tub and walk-in steam shower. It also has access to a private balcony. There's two other bedrooms, plus another full and half bath.

The home is a split-level, with the bottom floor containing a nice little Florida room, reading room, and lounge with wet bar that leads to a walk-out patio in the backyard. Oh yeah, there's also a pool and hot tub. This impressive home is listed with Nika Jusufi of Max Broock realtors for $499,500.
